LEGAL.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Archibald Gibson Greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by A. E. Gibson, as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover the judgment and decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between you and this plaintiff, upon the grounds of desertion and failure to provide plaintiff with the common necessities of life, though abundantly able to do so, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this 3d day of March A. D. 1890.
T. V. JULIEN,
Clerk of the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to Vincenzo Alberti, defendant, greeting: You are required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Maria Alberti, as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons—exclusive of the day of service—if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover the judgment and decree of the said Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between you and said plaintiff, on the grounds of extreme cruelty on your part toward her, practiced by you since the marriage between you and said Maria Alberti, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 13th day of February, A. D. 1890.
R. H. LINDSAY,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

NEVADA INSURANCE.

The Elko Independent very pertinently remarks:

We have received from State Controller Halleck an abstract of statements of insurance companies doing business in the State of Nevada during the year ending December 31, 1889. From this it appears that there are thirty-six companies interested in business in this State, not one of which is a Nevada institution. These insurance companies took risks during the past year aggregating $4,653,848.95, on which they received premiums amounting to $185,076.35. The losses paid during the year amounted to $111,226.32, leaving a profit to the companies of $23,850.04. Deducting a small per cent. from this for expenses, salaries of agents, etc., there still remains a handsome profit to the insurers. The above is for fire insurance alone, and is exclusive of life and accident business and assessment associations, which is no inconsiderable sum.

The question naturally arises, why would it not be a paying investment to inaugurate a sound insurance company within the State? A large amount of this vast outlay might just as well be kept within the State, and the people of Nevada would certainly prefer to patronize a home institution rather than one located at London or Liverpool, England; Dublin, Ireland; Hamburg, Germany; Toronto, Canada; Auckland, New Zealand, or various cities in the United States, both East and West, all of which are represented in the insurance business within the State of Nevada. We suggest that a Nevada insurance company be formed, which would eventually supersede these foreign corporations in taking risks on property within the State, and pay a handsome profit on the capital invested in the enterprise.

The San Francisco Bulletin says: "The Hibernia bank reduced its rate last week from 7 to 6. It was only advanced to 7 on February 12th. A very short experience convinced the officers that the money was not so scarce as had been represented, for in a very few days large amounts out on call were returned rather than pay the new rate. Tuesday the Hibernia bank put out one loan of $100,000 at 6 per cent on California street property. All the loans by the other banks last week were at 7 per cent. The loans by the building societies included one of $3,000 at 6, while all the others were at 7@8. The loans from miscellaneous sources varied from 6 to 12. The California insurance Company put out two loans of $36,000 for 6 years at 6%. There is a good demand for commercial paper at the average rate of 7 per cent. Exchange on New York is weak and irregular. Large drawers are able to get good discounts on quoted rates. Good demand for Mexican dollars and fine silver.

Monday evening the directors of the California Club matched George LaBlanche and young Mitchell to fight on the evening of June 27th for a purse of $2,500, of which $500 will go to the loser. The men will fight at 154 pounds, and each deposited $500 as a guarantee that he would weigh, on the evening of the contest, at or under that weight. The directors also selected the evening of May 23d for the battle between Reddy Gallagher and Billy McCarthy.

The White Pine News says, a gentleman who recently passed through Spring Valley tells us the loss of cattle there has been pretty heavy. A. C. Cleveland, he said, lost about many. James Sampson's loss in sheep is also considerable.

The worst system of electric lighting ever adopted for cities—that from high towers—is gradually being abandoned. Mason, Ga., has six such towers, all of which are to be taken down by order of the city Council.

Speaker Reed's reforms are approved by Democrats as well as Republicans.

The steamer, City of Paris, arrived at Liverpool last night.

Penalty of the Anti-Trust Bill.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Anti-Trust bill as reported to-day from the Senate Committee on Judiciary, in substance declares illegal every form of trust or conspiracy in the restraint of trade in or among the several States and Territories or with foreign nations. Every person who shall engage in such combination shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine, not exceeding $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both. Any property owned by such combination shall be seized and condemned by the United States.

G. A. R. Reunion.

Special to the Journal.

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Governor Waterman and staff have received invitations to the next annual reunion of the G. A. R. of northern California, which convenes at Red Bluff April 17th, and to the meeting at San Jose April 23d, when General Alger, Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R., will be present. The invitations have been accepted.

Aid for the Striking Moulders.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO April 2.—This afternoon the Iron Moulders' Union received $2,000 from the International Union headquarters, at Troy, N. Y., accompanied by words of encouragement. They also received $100 from the Coast Seamen's Union.

Republican Victory.

Special to the Journal.

SANTA ROSA, April 2.—One thousand and sixty votes were polled in the city election to-day, the largest ever polled in a city election. The Republicans carry nearly the entire ticket, but much scratching was done.

A HEROIC YOUNG LADY.

A LONE HIGHWAYMAN HOLDS UP A STAGE, BUT ONLY GETS EIGHTEEN DOLLARS.

A Young Girl Runs Away to See the World and Commits Suicide After Two Days.

Let Them Enter.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Idaho admission bill was taken up and Dubois earnestly advocated the admission of Idaho, criticising the minority report. He said it was proposed that bigamists and polygamists should vote and he asked what right had members of the minority to impose upon Idaho conditions which never before had been imposed upon any State coming into the Union. "Brave pioneers, who had gone to Idaho abandoned all party ties and united in saying: 'We earnestly desire Statehood but we desire it only for legal American citizens.'"

Smith, of Arizona, earnestly denounced the action of the Committee on Territories in failing to report the bill for the admission of Arizona. His people had been unfairly treated. Arizona had every qualification for Statehood, but the bill for her admission was being smothered in committee simply because she had seen fit to send a Democrat to this Congress.

Smith said the territory of New Mexico with a population a quarter greater than Idaho and Wyoming combined, was also kept in the background, and he asked, was it because poor Joseph (the delegate) had started wrong in his youth and had returned a Democrat?

Chipman, while favoring the admission of the Territories, criticised the proposed Constitution of Idaho as an invasion of sacred individual and religious rights. Polygamy was a crime which should not be tolerated, but the Constitution closed to the accused the courts, the only asylums against passion and corruption.

Perkins spoke in favor of the bill and, pending further debate, the House adjourned.

Death of a Young Girl.

Special to the Journal.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 2.—A young girl was found last night in a semi-conscious condition lying on a bench in the Seventh street cable power house and was taken to the police station. She died this morning of opium or morphine poisoning. For a time at the station she was conscious and said her name was Pauline Clinton, and that she was from Sacramento. She was identified at the Morgue to-day as Lulu Wickersham, daughter of J. M. Wickersham, of East Los Angeles. She left home Monday evening to go to a grocery store and was not seen by her parents until found dead at the Morgue. It is not known whether she was fatally decoyed and drugged, or took poison with suicidal intent.

The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict that the girl came to her death by suicide. Evidence showed that she had run away from home to see the world and after one day's experience had committed suicide.

Was It Black Bart?

Special to the Journal.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 1.—Steamer passengers from Ensenada, Lower California, report that the Alamo stage was held up near there Monday morning by a lone highwayman who, at the point of a rifle, ordered the nine men in the stage to stand in line and to throw out the International Company's baggage, which it happened was not in the stage. Major Zampelman, of the El Paso mine, had about $8,000 in baggage with him, and other passengers had sufficient to make up about $10,000, but all they threw the robber was eighteen Mexican dollars. They obeyed his orders to drive on, but afterward returned and pursued him without avail. The International Company had cleared up $25,000 the day before, but was not ready to forward it.

Cut His Wife's Throat.

Special to the Journal.

BOSTON, April 2.—Charles Kershaw, of No. 25 Melrose street, entered his wife's bedroom last night and ordered her to get up. She refused to do so, and the husband took his razor, held her head down on the pillow, and buried the razor deep in her neck. Several times he drew the gory blade across her throat until the head hung by a mere shred. The woman died instantly. The murderer walked into a neighbor's room and told him of his crime. Kershaw was arrested and said he had done nothing he was sorry for. Jealously prompted his act.

Struck by a Train.

Special to the Journal.

ANDERSON, Cal., April 2.—The local north-bound passenger train struck, and probably fatally injured H. H. Nunnally, of this place, one arm was crushed besides severe internal injuries. The injured man was formerly Assessor of Lake county. Deafness prevented his noticing the approach of the train. LATER—Nunnally has since died.

Confirmation

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON April 2.—The Senate has confirmed Mizzell Marshall for the Southern District of Florida.

Horrible Fate of a Conductor.

Special to the Journal.

DELTA, Cal., April 2.—The regular south-bound freight train on the California & Oregon railroad broke in two pieces two miles north of this place this morning. Two light engines struck the caboose, driving it through a coach and pinning conductor D. G. Gale in the wreck. A fire broke out immediately, burning the caboose and coach and also burning Conductor Gale to a crisp.

The victim is said to have been a brother of A. Y. Gale, conductor of the passenger train on the Carson & Colorado railroad running between Moind House and Candelaria. There are six of the Gale brothers, five of them are in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company either as conductors or engineers and they had a family reunion at Truckee a year or more ago.

She Snubs Her Old Friends.

Special to the Journal.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The Duchess of Marlborough, formerly the rich widow Hamersley of this city, will sail for England in a day or two. The "American Duchess" has been here a week or more, but she has not appeared in society to any extent. The famous 400 had made arrangements to entertain her royally, but they were curtly informed that the Duchess came here to attend to some legal business and not to renew old acquaintances. This is the first visit of the Duchess to America since she became possessed of a title.

Gathering in Light-Weight Coin.

Special to the Journal.

LONDON, April 2.—This is the last day on which any gold coin of the realm milled before the reign of Queen Victoria and that is below the least current weight, could be exchanged for current coin of full weight. By order of the Council the light coins should be tendered, at the latest, to-day at the Bank of England and left there as long as may be necessary for examination and weighing. In this way most of the light gold coin of the country has been withdrawn.

Back to the Scenes of Their Youth.

Special to the Journal.

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Governor Waterman has received a letter from Governor Brackett, of Massachusetts, stating that the Society of California Pioneers, of New England, are to make an excursion to this State, and will be in California April 25th, 26th and 27th. Governor Brackett desires that Governor Waterman name a date when the visitors can visit the Capitol. Governor Waterman has replied, fixing the date for the call at the Capitol for the evening of April 26th.

A Heroine Indeed.

Special to the Journal.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 2.—Miss Mamie Donnelly, who lives at No. 10, Lafayette street, proved herself a heroine last evening. James Whalen, aged sixty years, was walking along the Derby railroad and his foot was caught in a frog. A train was bearing down upon the old man, who was rapidly weakening from his useless efforts to extricate himself, when Miss Donnelly ran to his assistance. Cutting open his boot with a pair of scissors she pulled his foot from the frog and carried him from the track just as the train rolled past.

Suicide of a German Count.

Special to the Journal.

DENVER, Col., April 2.—Yesterday evening a man calling himself George Hartman, walked into a saloon on Larimer street and blew his brains out in the presence of half a dozen men. The body was taken to the morgue and was to-day identified as that of Count Schemmerman Von Hartman, of Hamburg. Poverty and whisky were the causes. His wife arrived from San Francisco to-day and will take the body home.

A Boom in Candelaria Lots

On the authority of ex-Governor Kinkead, says the Virginia Chronicle, since Col. Sutherland has acquired control of the Holmes mine a rash is being made for Candelaria and building lots which could have been secured a month ago for $10, sell readily for $200 and up to $500. Stores are rapidly going up, as well as saloons and gambling houses, which is always considered a sign of success in a mining camp.

International Coin.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Pan-American Conference to-day unanimously adopted resolutions that an international American monetary union be established, uniform international coin or coins be issued within a year from the adjournment of the conference. A committee composed of delegates from each nation shall meet at Washington to consider the value and quantity of such coinage.

Presidential Nominations.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The President to-day nominated George S. Turretin as Surveyor General of Nevada. Register of Land Office—Henry C. Olney, Gunnison, Colorado. Receivers of Public Money—George C. Thaxter, Carson City, Nevada; John Lambert, Pueblo, Col.

A Fatal Mine Cave.

Special to the Journal.

KETCHUM, Idaho, April 2.—A serious cave occurred in the Ontario mine, Boyle mountain, yesterday, killing J. F. Konkle, a miner. Three other miners escaped uninjured.

Death of Jas. Hanson.

Special to the Journal.

MARYSVILLE, April 2.—James H. Hanson, the founder of Hansonville, is dead. He was a well known pioneer of Yuba county and at one time a representative in the legislature.

SAM SINBAD A SAILOR.

HE ASTOUNDS A NUMBER OF CHICAGOANS ON A STREET CAR.

Stolen from Home When Five Years of Age, He Visits Every Country on the Globe—Slaver, Millionaire and Philosopher—Now Living in Michigan.

Car No. 64 on the south side cable stopped a moment on Wabash avenue at the corner of Randolph street and took on board a tall, straight old man, whose long gray beard swept almost to his waist, but whose bright eye and upright bearing spoke the man of maturity, not decrepitude. At State street, as the car rounded into the loop, a second old man, evidently a farmer, stepped on board and took a seat by the ancient days. As the train passed on around into Wabash avenue again, passed a dozen others got on the car, all well dressed and clearly moving in an elegant aside from that of the two strange characters who sat side by side. The old man moved up to his former companion and the two fell to talking quietly until Havlin's theatre was reached. The car stopped and several persons got out to join the crowd, pressing into the foyer.

HAD VISITED THEATRES.

"Lots of folks going in there who can't pay their rent," said the ancient. "Lots of 'em don't own the clo's on their back. Got to take 'em home to-morrow and pay rent on 'em."

"Did you ever visit a theatre?" asked the farmer in an effort to be agreeable. "Yes," said Longboard, and then after a pause he added, "I've been to a theatre in Hong Kong." He shifted his legs, and bent his eyes kindly on the farmer as a man who knew he had struck hard and was willing to give the victim time to recover.

"Hong Kong in Japan?" asked the farmer, dazed a little, yet hoping his companion meant some city near home.

"No, Hong Kong ain't in Japan; it's in China," said the other. "And I've been to a theatre in Tokio, too; that's in Japan; and in Calcutta."

"Well, you've traveled," said the farmer. "Yes, I've been to shows in Paris and London and Liverpool and Leghorn and Alexandria; and I've been to shows—no theatres, but the best they had—on the east coast of Africa, and in Melbourne, Australia and Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, and I've seen the shows in the Chinese quarter in San Francisco."

Several gentlemen bent forward and fired questions at the old man. He was in no wise disturbed; he looked calmly, kindly on them all, and met every thrust with a precision which showed, "rocky" as he looked, that he had either been over the ground or had studied his story wonderfully well.

"On what ship did you sail to Paris?" asked one of the first.

"Paris ain't no seaport," said the ancient. "I traveled there in 1830 in a diligence. We call 'em omnibuses."

"How old are you?"

"Seventy-nine. I was born in 1816 in Wilton, a little town in New York state, on the edge of an Indian reservation.

In May, 1815, my father's brother, who was a sailor, took me for a walk in the woods, and I didn't get back till 1815. He carried me to New York and put me on board a vessel to Liverpool, that he had shipped on for a three years' voyage.

We never reached New York for seven years, and then I had a good chance to slip again and went off without going home. But I always recollected my father and where I used to live, and how old I was when Uncle took me away.

I learned to read on shipboard and used to get books and read about strange countries. Then I would talk to sailors, and when a voyage was over I would ship on some craft going where I wanted to go. That way I learned pretty near all languages. Any of you talk French?"

The lady did, and he proved to her his claim to a mastery of that tongue. "Anybody talk Russian, or Spanish, or German?"

The lady tried him in Spanish and a gentleman present approved his German. The other languages had to be taken on trust, but the passengers exchanged eloquent eloquence of faith in the ancient.

ONCE OF MEACHAM'S HEIRS.

"In 1837," he continued, "I drifted down to New Orleans, and old man Meacham there, a rich old slave dealer—you've all read about him—was getting up a crew for the slave trade, and I shipped with him. He wanted only choicer men and he got 'em. He paid every one the best wages for able seamen, and besides that arranged that each one who stayed with him five years should get $200,000 from his estate when he died.

"Old Meacham died three years after he hired his crew, and only two fellows stayed in his service till the five years were up. They had got good pay for their work, and got good offers to ship again, and they left and went. I stayed the five years, and got the $200,000 he left me in his will. I went into business for myself then—bought a boat for $100,000 and carried passengers to France and England. I wouldn't carry a ton of freight for no money, and my packet was the finest thing that ever floated out of New Orleans. Passengers had to pay for it, though, and I made a heap of money. In 1844 I built the first ironclad boat that was ever put up in Boston. It was before the day of metal bottoms, but I spent $47,000 in iron plates half an inch thick on that boat. She run all right, but she run into an iceberg in a fog bank off Newfoundland in 1846, and was sunk with crew, passengers and cargo.

"I've built many a vessel in my time, and made a heap of money. I was in the Red sea trade till I lost a square rigged ship there. I've lost one ship in the Atlantic, two in the Pacific, one in the Red sea and three in the Mississippi river.

"Where do you live now?" asked one of the gentlemen. "Benton Harbor, Mich. Nice town, too. Just drifted there. Got some money left, but I've lost a heap."

The end of the trip had been reached. The lady had left the car some blocks back, and only three gentlemen stood beside him. The old man turned to go.

"I'm stopping till Tuesday at 2729 Calumet avenue. You can find out there I'm telling the truth. But you young men look here," and he grasped the two nearest him with a vigor that would have done credit to half his years. "I'm old enough to be your grandfather, and I never drank, chewed nor smoked, but I've seen more life in more lands, had more fun and more trouble than all three of you'll ever know about. But take my advice and don't drift."—Chicago Herald.

Lotus Roots Purify Water.

Indian Engineering states that a large basket of the roots of the lotus has been received by the municipality of Bangalore from Tanjore, and is planted out in the beds of the tanks in the station. This aquatic plant is rapidly oxygenates the water, and, ridding it of its dead organic matter, brings it into a healthy condition. The presence of such like aquatic plants in reservoirs is said to diminish evaporation.

A Missing Ship Heard From.

Special to the Journal.

TACOMA, April 2.—Balfour, Guthrie & Co., have received news from the bark Emblemton, which was dimasted last fall while en route from England to Tacoma, and supposed to be lost. Advice is that she left Falkland Islands late in February, having put in for repairs. It will take her three months to reach here, so she will arrive about the last of May.

Secure Quotations.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Despite the efforts of the Board of Trade the bucket shop managed to secure quotations with reasonable promptness, and assert that their business was not diminished.

BREVITIES.

Ex-Gov. Jewett Adams came up from San Francisco yesterday.

Minstrels to-night, and the best troupe in the country.

R. L. Fulton and family returned from the Bay yesterday morning.

Gen. R. P. Keating was a passenger for the Comstock yesterday morning.

The School for Girls closed yesterday for the Easter recess. It will reopen next Tuesday.

An assessment of 25 cents per share was levied yesterday by the Ophir Mining Company.

Wm. Thompson has purchased Pierce Evans' shares in the Reno Electric Light Company.

The President yesterday nominated Geo. Tarratin for Surveyor General of Nevada, to succeed C. W. Irish.

A Bodie correspondent writes that several mines in that district, exclusive of the Standard, will produce bullion this year.

You need not pay an extra quarter for a reserved seat, but buy your ticket at the door for $1, and go and see the minstrels to-night.

The Palace Dry Goods and Carpet House announces that it will in a few days open a fine stock of Spring and Summer dry and fancy goods.

A local company has been formed at Cherry Creek to work the Exchequer mine on lease. The company is made up of resident miners and mill men.

For Easter.

We have been favored with an advance copy of the double Easter number of The Youth's Companion. The pages are profusely illustrated, and the stories are by favorite writers. Some of the titles are, "Numbered with thy Saints," by Mrs. Mary Tappan Wright, "Gabrielle's Easter Hat," by Mrs. Marie B. Williams, "One of the Squire's Mornings," by Sara E. Cushman, "Bim Hazlett's Luck," by Miss Sophie Sweet, a humorous story called "A Botanist's Predicaments," "Holy Week in Peru," by Maria Louisa Wetmore, "Miss Bent's Easter Eggs," by J. L. Harbour, with timely editorials, poems, and a special page for the little ones.

Four hundred and forty thousand families will receive this number, and the Easter season will be the more memorable to them because of its recognition in this pleasant form.

Cleveland's Minstrels.

It is unnecessary to repeat that Cleveland's Minstrels will open their engagement at the Opera House this evening as a sufficient number of reserved seats have been secured to assure a jam, but it is relevant to mention that the company as at present organized by Mr. Cleveland surpasses in talent any minstrel combination that has heretofore visited this locality.

The manager assures the JOURNAL that every feature mentioned in the bill will be presented to the minutest detail. To witness the gorgeous spectacle of the Venetian nights is alone worth the price of admission, and the other attractions rival in number those of a sixteen ring circus.

Easter Service.

The musical portion of the morning service for Easter day at Trinity church will be as follows:

Opening—98th hymn.
Easter anthem.
Gloria Patri.
To Dom.
Jubilate.
99th hymn.
Gloria Tibi.
101st hymn.
Offertory.
Old Hundred.
In the evening the Sunday School Easter Festival will take place.

The Humboldt River Booming.

The Silver State says:
The Humboldt is up to the 7-foot mark at the bridge here and is rising steadily. At Battle Mountain it is bank full, as it will be here in a week or so. All the sloughs are now full, and so soon as the stream gets out of its banks dams will not obstruct it in the least. When the Humboldt is low it is the crookedest stream on the continent, and if straightened out would reach to Omaha, but when it overflows its banks it is not one-half so long.

Sheep Sold.

C. Henshel has sold his sheep to J. G. Taylor, and is going out of the business. The price is said to be $3 for wethers and $2.75 for ewes.—Silver State.

The Bishop's School for Girls will close for the Easter recess on the afternoon of Wednesday, April 2d, and reopen at the usual hour on the morning of Tuesday, April 9th. Students are expected to be on hand at the re-opening.

JULIA MESQUITE, Principal.

Go to Lange & Schmidt's for ranges, and cook stoves. Best assortment in the State.

WHAT ON ARTH

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing.

Position of the Planets for April.

URANUS

Is morning star until the 14th, and then becomes evening star. Uranus comes to the front on the April planetary record, for the most important epoch in his course, his opposition with the sun, occurs on the 14th, at midday. He is then at his nearest point to the earth, and is visible to the naked eye. He must be looked for on the 14th in the southeast about 3 d. east of Spica and 1 d. 36 m. farther north. He rises when in opposition at sunset, and is on the meridian at midnight. An opera glass will be an aid in finding the planet, unless the visual power is unusually good, and 9 o'clock in the evening is a favorable time for observation.

Uranus rises on the 1st at 7 h. 20 m. P. M. On the 30th he sets at 4 h. 19 m. A. M. His diameter on the 1st is 3.8 s., and he is in the constellation Virgo.

SATURN

Is evening star. His vicinity to Regulus and his convenient position for observation make him, during April, the most interesting member of the brotherhood. After his conjunction with Regulus, on March 28th, he continues to retrograde or move westward until the 28th, when he becomes stationary, then changing his course, or moving eastward, he again approaches the bright star, being nearly 1 d. west and 1 d. 36 m. north of it at the close of the month.

Saturn sets on the 1st at 4 h. 7 m. A. M. On the 30th he sets at 2 h. 11 m. A. M. His diameter on the 1st is 18 d. 4 m. and he is in the constellation Leo.

MERCURY

Is morning star until the 9th, and then evening star. He is in superior conjunction with the sun on the 9th, at 2 h. 22 m. A. M., and commences his swift course eastward from the sun, overtaking Venus on the 25th. The two planets are then in conjunction at 11 h. 10 m. P. M., Mercury being 2 d. 4 m. north. As the planets set about an hour and a half after the sun on the 25th, and are in high northern declination, sharp-sighted observers may find them soon after sunset, Venus serving as guide to her smaller neighbor.

Mercury rises on the 1st at 5 h. 33 m. A. M. On the 30th he sets at 8 h. 35 m. P. M. His diameter on the 1st is 5 d., and he is in the constellation Pisces.

MARS

Is morning star, and his movements increase in importance as he approaches opposition. He may be readily recognized in the southeast as a red star of the first magnitude, rising about 11 o'clock on the 1st of the month and half past nine at its close. Southern observers will see him in his best estate, but he is unfavorably situated for observers in this latitude on account of his great southern declination.

Mars rises on the 1st at 11 h. 10 m. P. M. On the 30th he rises at 9 h. 30 m. P. M. His diameter on the 1st is 12.6 m., and he is in the constellation Scorpio.

JUPITER

Is morning star. There is no need of pointing him out to the observer who has an outlook on the southeastern sky, for at 3 o'clock on the 1st, and soon after 1 o'clock on the last of the month, he will loom above the horizon and shine with superb brilliancy.

Jupiter rises on the 1st at 9 h. 1 m. A. M. On the 30th he rises at 1 h. 18 m. A. M. His diameter on the 1st is 34.2 m., and he is in the constellation Capricornus.

VENUS

Is evening star. She will soon emerge from her temporary eclipse in the sunbeams, and prove her claim to be the brightest star in the firmament. She sets an hour and a half after the sun at the close of the month.

Venus sets on the 1st at 7 h. 8 m. P. M. On the 30th she sets at 8 h. 19 m. P. M. Her diameter on the 1st is 10.2 m., and she is in the constellation Pisces.

NEPTUNE

Is evening star. He sets on the 1st at 10 h. 28 m. P. M. On the 30th he sets at 8 h. 38 m. P. M. His diameter on the 1st is 2.5 m., and he is in the constellation Taurus.

Mercury, Venus, Neptune, Saturn and Uranus are evening stars at the close of the month. Mars and Jupiter are morning stars.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-st/-y

RENO CORRESPONDENCE.

Riverside Weather Reflections—Spring Croppings—Lenten and Easter Propositions—Reno Warriors—Comstock Society Reminiscence.
[Corr. Enterprise.]

Reno, Nev., March 30, 1890.—In our riverside town people hardly know which to do, shiver or be warm; dress in Spring clothes or wrap up in woollens; so this being the holy Sabbath day, they seem to have struck a sort of compromise, the cold-blooded ones wearing the cloaks and furs of Winter, and the younger and warmer ones appearing in lighter costumes minus wraps. As many of them had to go home from church in a snowsquirrel, they doubtless wished they had been wiser and had worn the too-soon-discarded comfortable vestments. It may be a trifle saying, that "Winter lingers in the lap of Spring," but unfortunately it is very apropos to the present. The old fellow evidently likes his cozy quarters altogether too well, and although occasionally for a short time Spring seems to have gotten rid of her incubus, back he bounces again with hardly a word of warning. In spite of all discouragements, the grass grows in spring up in all the yards, and the buds are swelling on the trees and shrubs. If they are not punished for their temerity and "nipped in the bud," Reno will soon be a garden spot indeed.

LENTEN OBSERVANCES AND EASTER.

Although the majority of the good people of Reno are not strictly religious church-goers, there is a sort of general feeling that Lent should be observed to a certain extent, and although at any time Reno society is not the gayest, during Lent it is still less so, and Easter will be welcomed as a release from whatever restraint Lent has exercised. Several entertainments are already in course of preparation, to take place as soon after Easter as possible, for though it is decidedly wrong to participate in such affairs before Easter, it is not wrong to prepare to do so immediately after it has passed. So the Guild of the Episcopal Society will present something attractive in the way of a drill, and exercises of different kinds, to close with a dance. The public schools are also arranging to give a High School Social, similar to those given in Virginia and Gold Hill, consisting of a literary programme, to be followed also by a dance. Then "On with the dance! Let joy be unconfined; No sleep till morn, when youth and pleasure meet To chase the glowing hours with flying feet."

The object in both and all cases is to corral the almighty dollar, and put it to some good and appropriate use.

The Reno Guard underwent an inspection by Lieutenant Governor Bell, Major Gahana and other military men at their hall last evening. Everything having been inspected and pronounced satisfactory, those present indulged themselves in "tripping the light fantastic toe" till midnight asured in the Sunday morning.

BRUMSEY'S DEATH.

To all old timers, especially society people of the Comstock, the news of the death of J. A. Brumsey must bring a feeling of sadness. In the flush days that followed the great ore development of the Crown Point and Belcher mines, the palmy days of the Comstock, he was a prominent member of the Bachelor Club that existed at that time and was noted for the elegance of the entertainments given by them to those who constituted the F. F. V's of the society of Western Nevada. A roll-call of the club's members now would meet with but little response. General Van Bokkelen, Major Hart, J. P. Smith, Charley Fletcher (poor Charley), J. A. Brumsey and a host of others, many of whom, beside the above mentioned, have passed over the river to answer the roll-call of a mightier leader than any that can be found on earth. Peace be with them, and a happy reunion in the land that knows no parting. Mr. Brumsey was of a genial and refined nature, courteous and kindly, especially to those whom he considered his friends. His mind, during the last few years of his life, was unfortunately under a cloud, and death was a happy release. It is difficult for those who knew him in his happier days to realize that such could be the case, but all must bow to "Him who doeth all things well," though at times it is hard to see that it is well.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me no good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it? Mrs. ELLA A. 250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR AN INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Avenue—Riverside Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

RENO

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
